Warning: Fake Payment Requests Circulating

OXEA has learned that in an alleged letter from OXEA one of its customers has been requested to make payments to the company only to the account of a company in Poland called "Trade Investment".

Oxea notes that the payment terms of the company have not been changed. In this case, the letter is a fraud attempt by unknown third parties, which the company has already reported to the law enforcement authorities.

"OXEA kindly asks its business partners and customers to be very cautious about any alleged changes to payment instructions (for example, changes to the account details and the name of the beneficiary), to check them carefully and in any case to consult personally with the known OXEA contacts," said Stefan Schmidt, Chief Financial Officer at OXEA.
